2. CLOZE TEST (10MKS)

'Last year when my sister was (1) recovering from an illness, he beat her again so that if the (2) neighbors had not gone in to save her she would have been (3) killed. We heard of it, and did as you have been told. The (4) law of Umuofia is that if a woman runs (5) away from her husband her bride-price is (6) returned. But in this (7) case she ran away to save her life. Her two children belong to Uzowulu. We do not dispute it, but they are too young to leave their mother. If, on the other hand, (8) Uzowulu should recover from his madness and come in the (9) proper way to beg his wife to return she will do so on the understanding that if he ever (10) beats her again we shall cut off his genitals for him.'

3. ORAL SKILLS (30MKS)

(a) Read the following oral poem and then answer the questions that follow.

When the cock crows
 The lazy man licks his lips and says
 'So it is day light again, is it?
 And before he turns over heavily
 And before he stretches himself
 And before he even yawns
 The farmer has reached the farm
 Water carriers arrived at the river
 Spinners are spinning their cotton
 And fire blazes in the black smith's hut

The lazy one knows where soup is sweet
 He goes from house to house
 If there is no sacrifice today
 His breastbone will stick out.

But when he sees a free yam
 He starts to unbutton his shirt
 And moves close to the celebrant

(Anonymous –YORUBA –NIGERIA)
